LEGISLATIVE NEWS

Tennessee celebrated 226 years of statehood in June!!

Congressman David Kustoff met with students in Washington, D.C. from Dogwood Elementary School, Forest Hill Elementary School, and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic School in Germantown. Congressman Kustoff joined Congressman Vern Buchanan in urging House Speaker Nancy Pelosi to bring H.R. 72, the Thin Blue Line Act, up for a vote. This bill ensures that criminals face the strongest punishment when they kill or attempt to kill law enforcement officers or first responders.

Senator Marsha Blackburn joined Senator Ron Johnson (R-WI) in leadership of the "No WHO Pandemic Preparedness Treaty Without Senate Approval Act" to require that any convention or agreement resulting from the work of the World Health Organization's (WHO) intergovernmental negotiating body be deemed a treaty, requiring the advice and consent of a supermajority of the Senate. The legislation comes as WHO pushes for broad new powers under a new "international treaty for pandemic preparedness and response."

Governor Bill Lee informed us of the SafeTN App which allows parents confidentially to report their concerns of violence or threats in their child's school or local community. The Tennessee Department of Safety monitors these reports and will ensure proper action is taken when a threat is suspected.

President's Corner

Hello, July!

June validated SCRWC's Annual Red, White, and Blue Picnic a great success.

July ushers in Early Voting from the 15th to the 30th. I am confident SCRWC members will respond with creative, energetic work to support and promote Republican candidates. I am looking forward to a large turnout at our July 12 General Meeting to hear Steve Basar, Republican candidate for Shelby County Trustee. He will set the tone and path for achieving our goal: Our goal is to be active Republican participants in the upcoming election.

Enjoy you Fourth of July and see you on the 12th.

Information for August Elections...

Dee Nollner

The August 4, 2022 Election Day includes the County General, the Judicial, the Memphis Special, the County School Board as well as the State primary and the Federal Primary Election.

Candidates listed in the County General are the winners from the April primary; the winners will take office September 1. You may also see signs for Municipal Candidates, but their election is in November. Petitions were available for them June 20. Due to the nature of their positions, Judges are prohibited from the usual campaigning. If you are aware of prejudiced decisions by a sitting judge, you may want to examine the credentials of those running against that person. Search: shelbygop.org for additional information about candidates.

Be sure that you request ballots for EACH election in which you wish to vote: County General, the Memphis Special, the County School Board, the State Primary and the Federal.

Early Voting and absentee voting will be available for all of these elections. If you will be out of town on Election Day and the 12-day early period, be sure to request an absentee ballot at shelbyVote.com.

Be an Informed Voter and Share Your Views...

As Conservative Republican women, we are responsible for educating our fellow women on Republican policies and principles.

As the local, state, and federal August and November elections in Tennessee approach, we must encourage our neighbors and friends to become knowledgeable of the Democrat Party's opposing beliefs. With their knowledge of what both parties stand for, we can encourage them to support the Republican Party's candidates..

With inflation at the highest it has been in forty years, fiscal responsibility remains a core belief of the conservative party. The State of Tennessee is recorded as one of the most fiscally responsible states in the union. The Tennessee House, Senate and Governor have kept state finances as a top priority. The state has been able to achieve this goal even without a state income tax. This rating is a testament to the Republican Party's general opposition to tax increases. The Democrat Party's stance is in favor of progressive taxes and more government regulation. The Republican Party believes heavy government regulation hinders employment growth and free market idealism.

The alarming increase in gas prices, food, and other necessities is a direct result of irresponsible government policy and spending that continues to be supported by the Democrat Party.

We implore conservative Republican women to prepare for the upcoming elections and to educate others about the impact of our candidates' choices.
